

Review and update of Central Virginia Workforce Development Area

Local Labor Market and Local Plan- Approved March 19, 2019

(i) Significant changes in local economic conditions

A state training center with over 1000 initial employees and two large businesses (over 700 employees combined), one in printing and one in pharmaceuticals have announced closures by the end of 2020. Several small layoffs of 60 or less are also occurring with some service sector employers. Additional updates are provided below on labor market and economic conditions

(ii) Changes in the financing available to support WIOA title I and partner-provided WIOA services

For the first time in the history of the Central Virginia Workforce Development Board, the Board secured $100,000 in non-WIOA funds through a Go Virginia grant that provides $70,000.00 to upskill existing workers in our region and $23,000.00 to begin building a regional career pathway system that includes support for a regional career expo. The Board is also fortunate to have developing relationships with the local governments and schools that will provide braided funding for youth career navigators to serve more youth with challenges before they drop out of school.

(iii) Changes to the Local WDB structure

Subsequent to the 2016 local plan, The Central Virginia Workforce Development Board has experienced several significant changes. First, was a name change in 2018 from “Virginia’s Region 2000 Workforce Development Board” to “Central Virginia Workforce Development Board”. Along with the Workforce Board name change, the fiscal agent changed names from “Virginia’s Region 2000 Local Government Council” to “Central Virginia Planning District Commission”. The CVWDB is also in the process of developing a 501c3 non-profit organization and updating bylaws to reflect these changes. This will position the Board to secure funding through private sources in addition to other grant funds. Expected completion late July 2019.

(iv) The need to revise strategies to meet local performance goals.

One of the most significant workforce challenges in the Central Virginia Workforce Development Area is finding employees who can pass drug screens, can show up to work regularly and contribute positively in the workplace (Work Ethic). The WIOA Title I programs will be working with the community college, and other partners to develop a 60-hour career readiness training specific to high demand career sectors to improve persistence through training and successful employment outcomes. The Board will also be working closely with Central Virginia Community Colleges and all school systems with significant input from businesses to develop employment sector strategies and career pathways that meet the need of our region’s employers. A key strategy under development is a comprehensive Career Pathway system that will include print and web-based media to promote high-demand regional occupations for all career seekers.

Adult Education: Adult Education is an critical component of the regional workforce system but has had some challenges providing services when needed in the One Stop due to funding/staffing issues. The Workforce Development Board and One Stop Operator are developing additional tutoring/mentoring support from area colleges/universities and will partner with Adult Ed to provide timely services for WIOA customers. Adult Ed anticipates helping to pilot a career readiness curriculum that address computer literacy and soft skills expected by employers. Adult Education will also be more closely linked with WIOA Title I Youth staff for tutoring, contextualized for career development.

Career and Technical Education: In LWDA 7, Career and Technical Education Directors from all public schools serve on the regional Talent Solutions Team (Business Services Team) along with Central Virginia Community College and other training or employment providers. The CTE directors partnered with the Workforce Board and the Regional Business Alliance to host a regional career expo that reached over 3700 students in April 2019 served as the launch of the Workforce Area's career pathways system. Title 1 Youth Career Navigators work closely with CTE programs in all schools to receive referrals and coordinate career services such as work experiences.

Building Employer Awareness: LWDA 7 has created a position for Business Engagement and Outreach (BEO Coordinator). This position is responsible for direct business engagement for sector strategy/career pathway development. This position also serves as the Virginia Career Works Central Region Brand ambassador and is responsible for the website, social media and public outreach. The BEO coordinator supports the Talent Solutions Team that regularly convenes to get input from businesses in need of employees or training and develops strategies to ensure that workforce partners meet the needs of regional employers. Through this role, LWDA 7 is creating much more awareness of Virginia Career Works-Central Region among businesses and community stakeholders.
